Sixteenth Annual Antitrust Lawyer of the Year

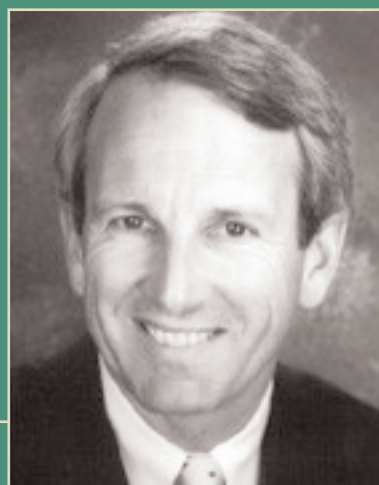

ROBERT E. COOPER

The Antitrust and Unfair Competition Law Section of the California State Bar is pleased to honor Robert E. Cooper as the 2006 Antitrust Lawyer of the Year.

“[Bob] Cooper is perhaps the most admired antitrust litigator in California,” according to the Global Competition Review. In the course of Mr. Cooper’s long career as an antitrust and unfair competition litigator, he has had scores of major jury trials, including numerous “bet-the-company” cases. Described by clients and colleagues as “the prototypical gentleman lawyer,” Mr. Cooper has been with Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP since 1964, when he graduated from the Yale School of Law; he currently is a senior partner of the firm, and Co-Chair of its Antitrust and Trade Regulation Practice Group.

Mr. Cooper is one of the nation’s premier antitrust litigators, and his trial record in antitrust cases is truly remarkable. Among his many courtroom successes, he achieved three consecutive victories for a major pharmaceuticals manufacturer in the antibiotics antitrust litigation, and later successfully defended American Airlines in three highly significant antitrust cases, with billions of dollars in collective liability at stake. Most notably, Mr. Cooper won summary judgment for the airline in a third action, instituted by the United States Department of Justice, alleging monopolization of American’s Dallas-Fort Worth hub. Based upon these and a string of other successes, Chambers USA observed that Mr. Cooper “has attracted most of the major cases in the last few years.” Other clients for whom Mr. Cooper has served as lead trial counsel include Hewlett-Packard, Sempra Energy, Intel, Ticketmaster, Honeywell, Northrop, Allergan, and Callaway Golf Company.

Mr. Cooper’s superb record has not gone unnoticed by colleagues and commentators; he is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, and also recently was selected as one of the Lawdragon 500 Leading Litigators in America. Mr. Cooper has received the top rating reserved for a handful of lawyers as a “star” antitrust lawyer – “the standard by which others are judged” – by Chambers USA – America’s Leading Lawyers for Business. Finally, Mr. Cooper has been recognized as one of the world’s leading competition practitioners, commercial litigators, and business lawyers in The International Who’s Who of Competition Lawyers, The International Who’s Who of Commercial Litigators, and The International Who’s Who of Business Lawyers, respectively.

LUNCHEON SPEAKER

WILLIAM E. KOVACIC, COMMISSIONER, FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

The General Counsel of the Federal Trade Commission from 2001 through 2004, William Kovacic rejoined the Federal Trade Commission earlier this year as a Commissioner. Commissioner Kovacic was most recently the E.K. Gubin Professor at George Washington University Law School. He is an internationally renowned authority, and has advised the governments of more than a dozen countries on antitrust and consumer protection issues. Commissioner Kovacic is a frequently quoted commentator and highly sought after speaker on issues of antitrust law and enforcement.

Join the Antitrust & Unfair Competition Law Section

The Antitrust and Unfair Competition Law Section was established by the State Bar of California in 1981 for the purpose of furthering the knowledge of its members in federal and state antitrust and unfair competition law. The focus of the Section is on both litigation—including individual actions by competitors and class actions by direct/indirect purchases, and the procedural aspects of such litigation—as well as antitrust counseling. It deals with both private and government (federal, state and local) enforcement actions, including government criminal procedures. The Section is governed by an Executive Committee appointed by the Board of Governors of the State Bar of California.

SECTION MEMBERSHIP

There are no prerequisites to membership. All interested attorneys, judges, non-attorneys, paralegals, law students and out-of-state attorneys are invited to enroll in the Section.

STANDING COMMITTEES

The Section has the following standing committees in which Section members are urged to participate:

- Education/Programs
- Legislation
- Publications/Journal

JOURNAL

The Section publishes a periodic journal—Competition. Members who wish to author articles or assist with publications are encouraged to contact the Editor.

PROGRAMS

The Section annually presents an MCLE-accredited Antitrust Institute, at which it confers the Antitrust Lawyer of the Year Award, and a program on the Unfair Competition Law. It also sponsors educational programs at the Section Education Institute, the State Bar of California Annual Meeting, and through informal, “brown-bag” seminars throughout the year.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- Free annual subscription to the Section journal
- Competition to keep members current on issues and developments
- Discounts on all Antitrust and Unfair Competition Law Section programs
- Discounts on any Section publications
- Opportunity to participate in Section and Committee activities
- Opportunity to meet other members of the Antitrust and Unfair Competition Law Section
